

KUNA, IDAHO

Quick Facts

- Forbes magazine has listed this area in the Top 10 Places for Business and Careers for the past 8 years.
- Situated only 20 minutes from the State Capital in Boise, Kuna residents have easy access to libraries, health care, universities, museums, legislation, and the amenities of the Boise Metropolitan area.
- Kuna's population of 15,960 is part of the greater Boise Metropolitan Area of 649,372 residents.
- Kuna is only eight miles south of the I-84 Interstate, with two major interchanges from the Boise Metro area to Kuna - Highway 69 (five lanes) and Ten Mile Road (new). The Kuna Mora Road I-84 exit is the third major corridor into Kuna from the Boise Metropolitan region.
- The Boise Airport serves more than 3 million people a year and is served by seven airlines with non-stop flights to 22 cities.
- Union Pacific Railroad provides freight rail service through Kuna, with easy access for businesses wanting to locate in Kuna's industrial park
- Kuna and the surrounding area has a work force of more than 300,000 workers, with 110,000 workers with college degrees.
- Workforce - 66.1% population is in the labor force. 90.2% of the workforce are high school graduates and 20.7% of the workforce hold bachelor's or higher degrees.
- Median age is 28 years old.
- Median Household Income is $53,387 (2007-2011), compared to the national average of $46,326.
- In the past 10 years (2000-2010), Kuna grew 182.6%, making us the fastest-growing city in Idaho. Since 2010, Kuna has grown by an additional 440 residents.
- Total area in the city limits - 18.1 square miles, making Kuna large enough to accommodate a considerable amount of growth for residences and businesses.
- Kuna's elevation is 2,694 feet above sea level, with a mild climate, fairly long growing season, and four distinct seasons.
- 5,108 housing units in 2010, with an average household size of 3.18 persons per family.
- Parks System - Nearly two miles of a greenbelt system along Indian Creek within walking distance of downtown Kuna and several parks.
- Water System - 10 deep wells, chlorinated for safety.
- Sewer System - New state-of-the-art membrane filter system with a phosphorus precipitation removal system.
- Pressurized Irrigation System - Utilized throughout the city for lawn and garden irrigation.
- Kuna's form of government is a Mayor and 4 city council members.

City of Kuna Economic Development
763 W. Avalon, P.O. Box 13
Kuna, ID 83634

(208) 922-5546
mayornelson@cityofkuna.com

Visit us on the web: www.cityofkuna.com

